Good Afternoon Everyone! I just read these and she just sent me a text like right now. @Julie goldberg should I respond 1:07 PM

I am writing you regarding the messages you sent to Julie regarding your last paycheck and some possible issues. Please be advised that you should contact me directly at this email where you have sent your timesheet info in the past. That should help any confusion as Julie doesn't handle payroll directly.

Unfortunately because it's the weekend, I won't be able to get into everything until Monday. I did notice that the time card card corrections from you for Oct 1-15 were sent 14 days late which could have caused an issue as I can only pay out what hrs I have. I will review everything and get back to you in detail on Monday. Have a good rest of your weekend.

Sincerely,
Megan Elizabeth

These are the hours that I worked Julie. I know the exact dollar amount because salaried positions are also broken down into dollar amounts along with calculating OT which I worked PLENTY of for you. So to say that I am not owed 12:55 PM

i'm going to send her an email but basically she was on salary for 85k in an admin capacity she's not owed OT and she was paid at that rate

Julie goldberg

Oh so I'm pretty sure she's above the salary minimum and we are not required to pay her overtime

12:56 PM
